

First Friday!

September 4, 6-9pm

Please join us for another great opening at the Hamilton Gallery, 2927 Hamilton Avenue in Northeast Baltimore, 21214. Enjoy original artwork by our guest artist, Irma Pina-Garner for a premier showing of beautiful silk prints hung on bamboo supports. Ms. Pina-Garner is traveling from her current home in Florida to be present for the opening. Be sure to check out the gallery window for a sneak preview of some of the delicate artwork on display.

As always, a new show of member artwork will be in place for the month of September. Framed artwork, giclee prints, oils, water colors, mixed media, clay paintings, photography, jewelry, blown glass, greeting cards – all available each month. Remember to check our website for current events at the HAC: www.hamiltonarts.org

Keep in mind, there are many great things to do every night. But on First Friday, look for happy hours, dinner specials, coffee shops, and a few new shops. Artwork is on display in many of these places, as well as at Studio 55 at 5529 Harford Road.

New to First Friday this month is the addition of the Mid Atlantic Center for Performing Arts, located at 5543 Harford Road. This Friday, plan to stop by for a Zumba demonstration and free dance lesson beginning at 9:15pm.

A new lineup of performances at the Cellar Stage is available on their website <http://www.uptownconcerts.com/> The Cellar Stage is located in Faith Community United Methodist Church at 5315 Harford Road.
