

JELLIES ARRIVE ON HAMILTON-LAURAVILLE MAINSTREET

SPONSORED BY HAMILTON-LAURAVILLE MAINSTREET

Graceful Jelly by Linda M. White King

PHOTOGRAPHS AND ARTWORK
BY ARTIST MEMBERS OF THE HAMILTON GALLERY

OPENING RECEPTION FRIDAY JANUARY 8, 2010

6:00–9:00 pm • The Hamilton Gallery
2927 Hamilton Avenue • Baltimore
www.hamiltonarts.org

INSPIRED BY THE  NATIONAL AQUARIUM.
JELLIES INVASION • OCEANS OUT OF BALANCE

5500 Harford Road
Suite 201
Baltimore, MD 21214
410-319-7150

Press Release

Contact: Regina Lansinger
Phone: (410)319-7150

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 20, 2009

HAMILTON-LAURAVILLE MAIN STREET HOSTS NATIONAL AQUARIUM

The Hamilton Gallery, located at 2927 Hamilton Avenue, hosts artwork inspired by The National Aquarium exhibit, on Friday, January 8, 2010 from 6-9pm. Light refreshments will be provided by the local restaurants and pubs of Hamilton & Lauraville on Harford Road in northeast Baltimore City. Nancy Hotchkiss, Sr. Director of Visitor Experience & Education and Suzanne Rothrock, Director of Strategic Marketing, will be present to share information about the Jellies Invasion. Members of the Hamilton Art Gallery will exhibit artwork in the gallery as well as in local restaurants and storefronts. The artwork will be on display throughout the month of January. This event is sponsored by Hamilton-Lauraville Main Street, Inc.

Jellies Invasion: Oceans Out of Balance

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO THE NATIONAL AQUARIUM FOR PROVIDING THE HAMILTON GALLERY MEMBERS THE OPPORTUNITY TO VIEW AND PHOTOGRAPH THE JELLIES, AND FOR THE USE OF THEIR LOGO.